Homemaker's in the 1950s Dawn Kuschel, 2004 How to Be a Good Wife Bodleian Library, 2008 Don't think that your wife has placed waste paper baskets in the rooms as ornaments Don't forget that very true remark that while face powder may catch a man baking powder is the stuff to hold him Marriage can be a series of humorous miscommunications a power struggle or a diplomatic nightmare Men and women have long struggled to figure each other out and the misunderstandings can continue well after they've been joined in matrimony But long before Men Are From Mars Women Are From Venus couples turned to self help booklets such as How to Be a Good Husband and How to Be a Good Wife two historic advice books that are now delightfully reproduced by the Bodleian Library The books originally published in the 1930s for middle class British couples are filled with witty and charming aphorisms on how wives and husbands should treat each other Some advice is unquestionably outdated It is a wife's duty to look her best If you don't tidy yourself up don't be surprised if your husband begins to compare you unfavorably with the typist at the office but many other pieces of advice are wholly applicable today They include such insightful sayings as Don't tell your wife terminological inexactitudes which are in plain English lies A woman has wonderful intuition for spotting even minor departures from the truth After all is said and done husbands are not terribly difficult to manage or Don't squeeze the tube of toothpaste from the top instead of from the
