El Filibusterismo José Rizal, 1968 José Rizal has a good claim to being the first Asian nationalist An extremely talented Malay born a hundred years ago in a small town near Manila educated partly in the Philippines and partly in Europe Rizal inspired the Filipinos by his writing and example to make the first nationalist revolution in Asia in 1896 Today the Philippines revere Rizal as their national hero and they regard his two books The Lost Eden Noli Me Tangere and The Subversive El Filibusterismo as the gospel of their nationalism The Subversive first published in 1891 is strikingly timely today New nations emerging in Africa and Asia are once again in conflict with their former colonial masters as were the Filipinos with their Spanish rulers in Rizal's day The Subversive poses questions about colonialism which are still being asked today does a civilizing mission justify subjection of a people Should a colony aim at assimilation or independence If independence should it be by peaceful evolution or force of arms Despite the seriousness of its theme however The Subversive is more than a political novel It is a romantic witty satirical portrait of Spanish colonial rule in the Philippines at the end of the nineteenth century written in the tradition of the great adventure romances The translation by Leon Ma Guerrero Philippine ambassador to the Court of St James conveys the immediacy of the original and makes this important work available to a new generation of readers His translation of The Lost Eden is also available in the Norton Library

The Social Cancer: A Complete English Version of Noli Me Tangere Jose Rizal, 2021-01-01 On the last of October Don Santiago de los Santos popularly known as Capitan Tiago gave a dinner In spite of the fact that contrary to his usual custom he had made the announcement only that afternoon it was already the sole topic of conversation in Binondo and adjacent districts and even in the Walled City for at that time Capitan Tiago was considered one of the most hospitable of men and it was well known that his house like his country shut its doors against nothing except commerce and all new or bold ideas Like an electric shock the announcement ran through the world of parasites bores and hangers on whom God in His infinite bounty creates and so kindly multiplies in Manila Some looked at once for shoe polish others for buttons and cravats but all were especially concerned about how to greet the master of the house in the most familiar tone in order to create an atmosphere of ancient friendship or if occasion should arise to excuse a late arrival an excerpt

The Social Cancer Jose Rizal,2009-06-01 Filipino national hero Jose Rizal wrote The Social Cancer in Berlin in 1887 Upon his return to his country he was summoned to the palace by the Governor General because of the subversive ideas his book had inspired in the nation Rizal wrote of his consequent persecution by the church My book made a lot of noise everywhere I am asked about it They wanted to anathematize me to excommunicate me because of it I am considered a German spy an agent of Bismarck they say I am a Protestant a freemason a sorcerer a damned soul and evil It is whispered that I want to draw plans that I have a foreign passport and that I wander through the streets by night

The Social Cancer Jose Rizal,2016-09-01 We travel rapidly in these historical sketches The reader flies in his express train in a few minutes through a couple of centuries The centuries pass more slowly to those to whom the years are doled out day by day Institutions grow and beneficently develop themselves making their way into the hearts of generations which are shorter lived than they attracting love and respect and winning loyal obedience and then as gradually forfeiting by their shortcomings the allegiance which had been honorably gained in worthier periods We see wealth and greatness we see corruption and vice and one seems to follow so close upon the other that we fancy they must have always co existed We look more steadily and we perceive long periods of time in which there is first a growth and then a decay like what we perceive in a tree of the forest FROUDE Annals of an English Abbey
